Spiritual, Moral, Social & Cultural Education Through PE, Sport and Physical Acitivity at Parkland

Children are encouraged to always try their best and to help others do the same

Children learn how to make their own decisions and think tactically

Children discover the importance of different sports to various cultures and societies

Children learn about rules & fairness

Learning together

Children have opportunities to watch, listen and feedback to others

how to keep themselves and others safe

Children experience a variety of different roles within sport Children are taught how to handle both success and failure, and how to deal with emotions