Parkland's Read Every Day (RED) in November Challenge

At Parkland we really value reading, and the children are given plenty of opportunities each day to practise their reading skills. However, we recognise that in order to make the most progress, children also need to read at home!

Therefore, this year we are launching again our Read Every Day (RED) November challenge. This challenge is to try and encourage children to enjoy reading at home as well as when they are in school, to promote a love of reading. As such, next week your child will receive a reading booklet (RED November) and all we ask is that you encourage them to read to an adult at home. This can be a book of their own, a magazine, a library book or their school book. If whoever they read to could either sign or initial the booklet that would be great. This is a lovely opportunity for you and your child or anyone in the family to enjoy some quality time reading together.

We really hope you will encourage your child to read every day. We look forward to seeing how many children can complete this exciting challenge!

Happy reading!
