

South Wigston Library

A small, community managed library located inside the Bassett Street Community Centre, with free and easy access to books, computers and information.

A place to relax and find a book whilst having a sip on your coffee. There is a range of books to choose from whether you fancy romance, thriller or an autobiography. They also have a cosy children's reading corner, where children can enjoy their favourite books.

The library also boasts an IT suite where you can access free Wi-Fi.

New users always welcome.
